Professor Alberto Tonini is one of the collaborators of Global Answer, as well as a researcher in Mediterranean Studies at the Università degli Studi Firenze (University of Florence). With a distinguished career spanning decades, Professor Tonini's academic research delves deeply into the intricate fabric of the Mediterranean region, addressing topics ranging from Islam and the Arab-Israeli conflict to modernity, migrations, and energy dynamics.

From an academic standpoint, Professor Tonini's expertise covers a wide range of crucial subjects for understanding the complexities of the Mediterranean. His focus on Islam provides valuable insights into the cultural and religious dynamics of the region, shedding some light on its historical evolution and contemporary manifestations.

Beyond his academic endeavors, Professor Tonini has served as the national secretary of SeSaMo (Società per gli Studi sul Medio Oriente), an academic society dedicated to Middle Eastern studies.

Professor Tonini's contributions extend to the realm of literature, with his publication, "Un'equazione a troppe incognite: I paesi occidentali e il conflitto arabo-israeliano (1950-1967)" (An Equation with Too Many Unknowns: Western Countries
