The Global-ANSWER project began its journey in 2015 with initial debates and discussions on the need to develop a research project that would allow Europe to advance and become a leader in migration management policies. In 2019, the initiative was launched, led by the Faculty of Social Work at the University of Granada in partnership with Italy (Rome, Florence, and Sicily) and Sweden. After overcoming the impasse caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, the project was revitalized in 2021, and the first publications on the work carried out are now available.
